

I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing.

- John 15:5 (NRSV)

As I read this verse, I think of the fruit we've seen growing in the past year – thanks to people like you, to God, to our partners across the globe.

Together, we are transforming lives and sharing God's love and compassion.

From the crisis in Ukraine to flooding and hunger in South Sudan, we are offering urgently needed help to those who need it most.

Because of supporters like you and church partners on the ground in South Sudan (pictured here), families struck by flooding, as well as hunger, conflict and displacement, received food.

And that's not all. Here in the U.S., your gifts spark new opportunities for young adults to expand peacebuilding and conflict resolution skills.

In Bangladesh, you're giving children new chances to succeed in school by providing early learning in a language they can understand. You're helping farmers in Bolivia grow more diverse crops, even in difficult land.

This is the fruit your gifts and prayers are bearing. I want you to know how much you're helping to change lives. Thank you.

MCC AT WORK IN THE U.S.

These are just a few of the ways MCC has made a difference in communities across the U.S. in the past year.

DEVELOPING YOUNG LEADERS

Through Summer Service, young people of color serve in their home communities. In California, Adelaida Hernandez led a youth Bible study and shared stories from her Oaxacan community in a podcast.

SERVING LOCAL COMMUNITIES

MCC reaches out to local communities, including coordinating volunteers like Evan Kauffman and Adesola Johnson to provide needed home repairs through Sharing With Appalachian People (SWAP).

PARTNERING WITH CHURCHES

MCC supports the ministry of local churches, like providing canned meat to this church helping Haitian refugees in Puerto Rico (left, Father Olin Pierre Louis, with MCC East Coast staff Andrew Bodden).

ADVOCACY OPPORTUNITIES

In Washington, D.C., MCC provides opportunities and information to help people speak to U.S. policymakers, including by arranging meetings for these bicyclists raising awareness about climate change.

MCC THRIFT SHOPS

In Kansas, MCC Thrift shop volunteers refurbish bikes to provide affordable transportation, just one way that MCC Thrift shops have made a difference locally and raised funds for MCC for 50 years.

RESOURCES FOR CHURCHES

MCC's National Peace & Justice Ministries has produced multiweek studies like Peaceful Practices and Embracing Beloved Community that can be used by churches, small groups or Sunday schools.
